DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.84(i). Lines, numbers and letters are not uniformly thick and well defined, clean and durable, and black (poor line quality), Figs. 1-3.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action.

Specification

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the use of the term "orion twist" is objected; it is unclear what structure is being implied. Applicant is requested to clarify, it appears spiral shape is intended. No new matter should be entered Appropriate correction is required.

Art Unit: 3723

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. Regarding the above claims, the language "orion twist shaped" renders the claims indefinite for making the scope unclear.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1-3 (as best understood) are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fenton (4,191,228).

Fenton meets all of the limitations of claim 1, i.e., screw fastener having a spiral shaped recess in the fastener's head and matching bit, except for that the head of the fastener is flat and that the driver is not explicitly disclosed to have a hexagonal end, both of which are considered to be obvious modifications to one of ordinary skill in the art depending on the workpiece and/or operational parameters, e.g., using convex head screw for its suitability for the intended work, e.g., cost, etc...and/or adapting the driver for power drill.

Regarding claims 2 and 3, Fenton meets the limitations, except for locking angle and length of the engaging portion of the bit, even though Fenton discloses for a preferred embodiment to have substantially same convergence angle between the male and the female portions, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the locking angle e.g., 25 degrees and the tapered end half an inch, since it has been held that changing shape, dependent on work-piece parameters, involves only routine skill in the art. In re Stevens, 101 US PQ 284(CCPA1954).

Conclusion

7. Prior art made of record and not relied upon are considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Pigford et al., Stacy, Lee, Davis, Perret, and Kozak are cited to show related inventions.
